

Ayton Great, (P.) in the wap. and liberty of Langbargh: 3 miles NE. of Stokesley, at the foot of Roseberry Topping. In the centre of Great Ayton stands a small school house, in which humble seminary the immortal Captain Cook received his school education, at the expense of Thomas Scottowe, Esq. under whom his father acted as hind, at his farm at Airyholme; in this parish. In the church is a monument of elegant workmanship, to the memory of William Wilson, Esq. formerly ', commodore and commander-in-chief of the marine force of the English East India Company, in which situation "he displayed one continued series of acts of disinterested patriotism and distinguished services." The church, dedicated to All Saints, is a neat plain ancient edifice, and the living is a perpetual curacy, in the patronage of the Rev. G. Marwood. Here are also chapels for the Society of Friends, Independents, Methodists, and Primitive Methodists. The river Leven may be said to take its rise from Ayton beck, a small rivulet which runs through this village.-Population, 1023.

Letters arrive daily at 7 morn. and are dispatched at 4 aft.
